Financial assistance can be a direct grant or a tuition deferment. In either case, parents or guardians should submit the financial aid request form and supportive materials to the Financial Advisory Board at the San Marino campus. The board makes all determinations regarding financial aid. All materials concerning financial aid are strictly confidential, for the use of the Financial Advisory Board only, and are not shared with other school staff nor retained with the student's permanent records. Parents and students who receive financial aid are requested to volunteer time to the school. Incidental fees are not included in the Financial Aid award. Monthly payments may be paid over a ten-month period (or less) between August and May. All accounts must be current by semester exams.

Please enter the appropriate amounts on the lines below.
