

TEACHING POSITION: HISTORY

Southwestern Academy
San Marino, CA

Southwestern Academy is seeking an enthusiastic and motivated person to teach classes in history beginning the fall semester, 2022. Located near Pasadena, California in the safe and beautiful community of San Marino, the academy has for 98 years provided guidance and a strong academic foundation for young people entering colleges and universities throughout the United States and the world. As a co-ed boarding and day school for over 100 students, we welcome domestic and international students in grades 6 to 12.

This teaching position is a full-time position within the Social Science department. The classes taught will vary depending on need but will include World History/Cultures, Geography and United States Government and Economics. Summer session teaching is possible but dependent on need. Salary is competitive and based on qualifications and experience.

As a boarding school, Southwestern Academy also has a mission to provide and work with a broad range of co-curricular activities for those students living with us. Our faculty is involved in these activities as well as in advising students on academic matters.

Position Description

Instruction
